

THE NEW PLAYS

"Come to Bohemia"
A Springtime
Challenge.
BY CHARLES DARNTON

THOUGH summer still waits in the lap of the cold spring known since enough medicine were a drug on the market, an appeal upon to hail the first summer show of 1916. It arrived last night at Maxine Elliott's Theatre with the offering "Come to Bohemia."

Of course, the Latin quarter of Paris loomed up on the back-drop, just as it always does in musical comedy of this sort. And it was in fact, was it not, the opening one of "The Bohemians" the much, then, for keeping Paris in their sights.

Pretty chorus girls in costumes taken freely from ballet, the performance its chief charm. The lyrics by George S. Chapell at a note of originality at times, and the music of Kenneth M. Mitchell had a tinsel, it somewhat reminds, at no college youths who have studied musical comedy in all its familiar phases are not without their limitations.

You may be sure there's a waltz song. It's called "Deep in the Heart" and Natalie All singing it, pretty, but Miss All has been in the line, the best song, as far as bringing life into the performance is concerned, is "Friendship," sung by Walter Pervall and an excellent male chorus. Here enthusiasm must end. Muriel Tudon, shakes out her red hair, but very little voice. Clara Palmer, displays good stage training, a dancing quality. Frits Williams is as happy as ever, and Olive Hovey, with modestly elated attention, William Danforth has little opportunity to be funny because "Come to Bohemia" is fairly lacking in comedy. It is only by his dancing with Ida May Weeks that Fred J. Nicoe any humor into the performance, though obvious in the end he is clever. For her part, the volatile Miss Weeks goes to daring lengths, but put it mildly.

In its tinsel way "Come to Bohemia" may be accepted as a spring-time challenge.

Motion Picture Notes.

Thomas Dixon, on whose novel "The Birth of a Nation" was based, has arrived in New York with the complete production of his latest offering, "The Fall of a Nation." This film was made in Los Angeles by the National Drama Corporation under Mr. Dixon's personal supervision. Film to the extent of 25,000 feet was made, but only 12,000 feet will be shown. The production will include a musical score composed especially for this picture.

SUGGESTIONS TO SICK WOMEN

How Many Are Restored To Health.

First.—Almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

Second.—The medicine most successful in relieving female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates and strengthens the organism; it overcomes disease.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Third.—The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the treatment of female ills.

Fourth.—Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.—Advt.
